Details of information sought:

With due respect I seek the honour to enquire about the following matters,

- 1) Kindly provide the name of the department in Government of India where the RRs of one feeder cadre have been denotified, while the RRs of other feeder cadre were notified and not been replaced till date?
- 2) Kindly provide the RRs along with Gazette notification belonging to any department under Government of India where RRs of one Feeder cadre stands denotified and never notified till date, while the RR and Gazette notification of other feeder cadre were notified giving the other feeder cadre an unfair advantage to be notified as Group A service despite being in Group B service in their old Rrs?
- 3) Kindly provide the RRs along-with the gazette notification of two feeder cadres in any department under Government of India who merge at certain level to become one single cadre from inception till date?
- 4) Kindly provide information about whether there is an example of de-notification of RRs of entire cadre, in any department under Government of India and there is a mention of a particular post, at a certain level, ostensibly to give an advantage to every post except the base post in the cadre?

Is there any example of recruitment in any department by Government of India where a direct recruitment was made to a say X post which was partly promotional & partly deputational at the same time direct recruitment was also being done to the base post to which the X post was the next promotional post to a post say Y? Was this appointment anomalous & what action did THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL, GRIEVANCES & TRAINING did take then and what action it will taking now to protect the seniority the appointees appointed to post Y?

5) Is there any example of recruitment in any department by Government of India where a direct recruitment was made to a say X civilian gazetted post which was partly promotional & partly deputational at the same time, where direct recruitment was also being done to the base post to which the X post was the next promotional post to a post say Y (Both posts were gazetted in nature) and also to non Gazetted post say Z (Ex cadre post) in another feeder to feeder cadre (Which was non gazetted post but equivalent post to Y in pay-scale) was the direct appointment to post Z was anomalous & what action did THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL, GRIEVANCES & TRAINING did take then and what action it will taking now to protect the seniority the appointees appointed to post Y now?
