Sub.: Request for information under Right to Information Act, 2005.

Sir,

Please refer to your letter dated 26.6.2012 received in the Commission on 28.6.2012 on the subject cited above.

2. It is intimated that the complaints received in the Commission are held by the Commission in fiduciary relationship with the complainants and sharing of any such information would be a breach of trust between the complainant and the Commission. The matter relates to person other than you and information which relates to personal information and the disclosure of which has no relationship to any public activity or interest or which would cause unwarranted invasion of privacy of the individual and tar their reputation, cannot be made available. It is also intimated that disclosure of the information may also endanger the life or physical safety of any person, since it may identify the source of information. Further, the case has not yet been finalized hence the information is denied under section 8(1)(h) of RTI Act. Therefore, the requested information is denied under Section 8(1) (e), (g) & (j) of the RTI Act.

3. If you are not satisfied with the above reply, you may make an appeal to Shri Alok Bhatnagar, Additional Secretary/Appellate Authority, Central Vigilance Commission, within 30 days of the receipt of this letter.

Yours faithfully,

(Surendra Mohan)
Director & CPIO
